PART I—Section 1

Notifications relating to Non-Statutory Rules, Regulations and Orders and Resolutions issued by the Ministries of the Government of India (other than the Ministry of Defence) and by the Supreme Court

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT

New Delhi, the 26th February 1957

No. 18-Pres./57.—The President is pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned Officer of the late Vindhya Pradesh State Police:—

Name of the Officer and rank.—Shri Hardeo Singh, Platoon Commander, S.A.F., Vindhya Pradesh.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—On the morning of the 11th July 1956, Platoon Commander Hardeo Singh was sent out with a section consisting of 1 Head Constable and 11 Constables to patrol the dense Jungle hideouts of dacoits operating in Vindhya Pradesh and the neighbouring States. While marching along the bank of the Sindh river he noticed two armed persons at Bisore Ghat. On challenging them he was fired upon by one of them. He returned the fire and shot down one of the desperadoes, while his section shot down the other. Within a few minutes the Platoon Commander and his party found themselves encircled by a gang of about 40 armed dacoits who had emerged from the jungle. Shri Hardeo Singh ordered his men to positions of cover and directed their fire on the advancing dacoits. He shot down two of them. His calling out of orders deceived the dacoits into believing that there were other forces on the flanks; they wavered in their attack and were driven back.

In this encounter which lasted for about two hours, one Constable was killed but four dacoits had been shot down. Platoon Commander Hardeo Singh displayed outstanding courage, presence of mind and leadership of a high order.

(Communications Division)

New Delhi, the 28th February 1957

No. 2/PLI/57.—The President hereby directs that the following further amendments shall be made in the Rules relating to Postal Life Insurance and Endowment Assurance namely :—

In the said Rules, for rule 9 and notes thereunder the following shall be substituted; namely:—

9. Assignments and Nominations.—(1) In registering any assignment, nomination or appointment of any person to receive the money secured by the policy in the event of the insurant's death during the minority of the nominee, the Post Office Insurance Fund assumes no responsibility whatsoever as to the validity thereof.

(2) While the Fund does not prescribe any particular forms for assignment or nomination, or for the notice thereof, specimens of the forms that may be used can be had from the Post Master-General on application.

(3) Assignment.—(a) Policies may be assigned by the policy-holder, either:—

- (i) for valuable consideration; or
- (ii) by way of gift.

(b) The assignment may be made either by an endorsement on the reverse of the policy itself or by a separate deed. The assignment must be dated and signed by the assignor in the presence of a witness and a notice in writing of the same must be given to the Postmaster-General. An assignment, otherwise complete, will be inoperative against the Fund unless due notice of the assignment has been delivered to the Postmaster-General. The notice of assignment must be accompanied by the policy duly endorsed or, where the assignment has been effected by a separate deed, by the deed of assignment or a copy thereof duly certified to be correct by both the assignor and the assignee or their duly authorised agents. The priority of claims under a policy will be governed by the dates on which the notices of the assignments have been received by the Postmaster-General at his office.

(c) After the assignment of a policy is once effected, the policy cannot be dealt with any further by the assignor and the only person competent to deal with it will be the assignee. In order to enable the policy-holder to deal with the policy again he should have a re-assignment in writing in his own favour executed by the assignee, attested by one or more witnesses, and registered in the records of the Postmaster-General.

(d) A fee of one rupee is charged for registering an assignment and furnishing a written acknowledgement thereof except where the assignment is made in favour of (i) the husband, wife, or child of the policy-holder, or (ii) a recognised Provident Fund for payment of premia under the policy.

(4). Nomination.—(a) A policy-holder is advised to nominate a person to whom the sum assured shall become payable in the event of his death so as to save his legal heirs the trouble and expense of obtaining legal title to the sums payable under the policy.

(b) The holder of a policy of life assurance on his own life may, when effecting the policy or at any time before the policy matures for payment, nominate the person or persons to whom the money secured by the policy is desired to be paid in the event of his death.

(c) Where the proposer gives the name of the intended nominee or nominees in the proposal form itself, the Fund will incorporate the name of such nominee or nominees in the text of the policy. A nomination, if not incorporated in the text of the policy, can be made only by an endorsement on the policy. In order to be effective, such endorsement must be communicated to the Postmaster-General for being recorded in his books. A nomination may, at any time before the policy matures for payment, be cancelled or changed by the assured by an endorsement or a further endorsement or a will, as the case may be, but the Fund will not be liable for any payment under the policy made bona-fide by it to a nominee mentioned in the text of the policy or to the one nominated by an endorsement on the policy and registered in the records of the Fund unless notice in writing of any such cancellation or change has been received by the Postmaster-General prior to such payment. A fee of one rupee is charged for registering the cancellation or change in the nomination.

(d) A transfer or assignment of a policy made in accordance with the provisions of section 38 of the Insurance Act, 1938 (4 of 1938) shall automatically cancel a nomination, provided that the assignment of a policy to the insurer who bears the risk on the policy at the time of the assignment, in consideration of a loan granted by that insurer on the security of the policy within its surrender value, or its re-assignment by the insurer on repayment of the loan shall not have the effect of cancelling a nomination, but shall affect the rights of the nominee only to the extent of the insurer's interest in the policy.

(e) Where the policy matures for payment during the life time of the person whose life is insured or where the nominee or, if there are more nominees than one, all the nominees die before the policy matures for payment, the amount secured by the policy shall be payable to the policy-holder or his heirs or legal representatives or the holder of a succession certificate, as the case may be.

(f) Where the nominee or, if there are more nominees than one, a nominee or nominees survive the person whose life is insured, the amount secured by the policy shall be payable to such survivor or survivors.

(g) Minor Nominee.—The holder of a policy of life insurance may, in any case where the nominee is a minor, appoint any person to receive the money secured by the policy in the event of his death during the minority of the nominee and communicate such appointment to the Fund by forwarding the documents relating to such appointment to the Postmaster-General. The consent of the appointee should be obtained at the same time as the appointment is made.

(h) Nominations as above are not permissible in the case of policy effected by any married man on his own life and expressed on the face of it to be for the benefit of his wife, or of his wife and children, or any of them; in such a case the policy ensures and is deemed to be a trust for the benefit of the insured's wife or for the benefit of his wife and children or any of them according to the interest so expressed (vide section 6 of the Married Women's Property Act, 1874):

Provided that the said section 6 shall be deemed not to apply or not to have applied to a policy where the nomination made at any time in favour of the insured's wife or the insured's wife and children or any of them is expressed, whether or not on the face of the policy, as being made under section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938.

NOTE 1.—Assignment of policies made in compliance with rule 21 (viii) (a) of the G.P. Fund Rules, which, in essence, is an assignment for valuable consideration, should also be registered in the office of the Postmaster-General under this rule.

NOTE 2.—Assignment of policy as a whole may be made either in favour of one person or jointly in favour of two or more persons.

NOTE 3.—In the case of an absolute assignment, all rights of the assured are vested in the assignee by an assignment and the assignee may therefore be entitled to claim the surrender value of the policy under rule 34 without the consent of assured.

M. M. GANDOTRA, Under Secy.

Hydraulic Science and technical knowledge in this sphere have since advanced considerably and further data has become available. - (ii) to indicate the general principles for determining the extent of bed scour for the design of foundations and the design of training works, the extent of aflux to be permitted at bridge openings for the peak discharge the minimum freeboard for various types and sizes of bridges and waterways to be provided; and
- (iii) to indicate measures to ensure safety of railway bridges against failure of various 'Railway affecting' works like tanks, canals, etc.

5. The Committee will, if necessary, co-opt as members any other engineers with knowledge and practical experience of construction and maintenance of bridges.
